

|                             |                                                                       |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|
| surnutri; -o         | to feed up; overfeeding                                               |
| surom; -a            | superman; superhuman                                                  |
| surozo; -i           | rashness; to act rashly                                               |
| surpasi              | to surpass                                                            |
| surpezo; -i          | overweight; to -weigh                                                 |
| surplena             | jam-full                                                              |
| surplue              | moreover                                                              |
| surpluo              | excess, surplus                                                       |
| surpopla; -at; -o    | overpopulated; -ation                                                 |
| surpren; -i          | surprise; to -                                                        |
| surpresyadi          | to overestimate                                                       |
| surpresyel           | extra-fare                                                            |
| surpresyi            | to overcharge (prices)                                                |
| surproduki; -azo     | to over-produce; -uction                                              |
| surprovi             | to pass an examination (a test)                                       |
| surrealismo; -ist(a) | surrealism; -ist                                                      |
| surrona              | ( anat. ) suprarenal                                           |
| Surs; -a             | U. S. S. R.; of the Soviet Union, of U.S.S.R.                         |
| sursalto; -i         | jump; to -, to give a - (a start)                                     |
| sursel; -i           | postponement, stay of proceedings, of execution; to postpone, to stay |
| sursensibla; -eso    | supersensitive; -ness                                                 |
| sursona              | supersonic                                                            |
| sursube              | topsy-turvy, upside down                                              |
| sursut               | overshoe                                                              |
| surtax; -i           | surtax, supertax; to -                                                |
| surte                | above all                                                             |
| surtenso             | hypertension, high blood-pressure                                     |
| surtrump; -i         | overtrumping n , to overtrump                                  |
| survarma; -i         | superheated; to -heat                                                 |
| survelyo; -yi        | supervising, control; to supervise, to control, to watch over         |
| surviv; -i           | survival; to survive                                                  |
| survodel             | overhang                                                              |
| susheptibla; -eso    | susceptible; -ility                                                   |
| sushiti              | to arouse, to create, to stir up                                      |
| suskrib(o); -i       | subscription; to subscribe                                            |
| susol                | subsoil                                                               |
| suspek; -i; -ema     | suspicion; to suspect; suspicious                                     |
| suspendi; -o         | to interrupt; -tion                                                   |
| suspens(o)           | suspense n                                                     |
| sustenti; -o         | to sustain; -ing n                                             |
| susur; -i            | susurration; to whisper                                               |
| sut; -i              | shoe; to -, to provide with -s, to put on -s                          |
| sutaso               | saucer                                                                |
| sutel                | dancing sandal; bootee, children's slipper                            |
| sutur; -i            | ( med. ) suture; to -                                          |
| suv(o); -i           | sweat; to -                                                           |

|                              |                                                       |
|------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| suxed; -i             | succession; to succeed                                |
| suxedal               | succession, transmission; - taxos death-duties |
| suxes; -i             | success; to be -ful                                   |
| Svedo; -a; -al; -el   | Sweden; -dish; -dish lang ; suede (leather)    |
| svelta; -eso          | slim; -ness                                           |
| Swis; -a              | Switzerland; Swiss                                    |
| syeda                 | decent, seemly                                        |
| syedi; -o             | to be decent, correct; - a; decency                   |
| syedokono             | good manners, knowledge of - -, of the world          |
| syeka                 | subject to a                                          |
| syeko; -i             | subjection; to subdue                                 |
| syen; -e              | breast, bosom, womb; in the middle of, in the lap of  |
| syerti; -er; -o; -azo | to set (precious stones); setter; setting n    |
| syesto; -i            | siesta; to have a -                                   |
| syok                  | ploughshare                                           |
| syom; -i              | pack-saddle; to load, to put a -                      |
| syor (Sr)             | Mister (Mr.), Sir                                     |
| syuti                 | to suit, to match                                     |

From:

<https://neo.auxlang.site/> - Neo IAL

Permanent link:

<https://neo.auxlang.site/en:neo:adn:dict:neo-en:txt:s:s-2>Last update: 29.10.2024 13:50